BAND STORY

I was born and raised mostly in southern California. I moved to the Pacific Northwest at the age of 14, and soon after developed my interest in music. Soon, an interest became a passion, a passion became a gift, and a gift became a ministry.

I began teaching myself the Bass Guitar at the age of 15, and within a few months was playing with my church on a weekly basis. Soon, I expanded my instrumental ability to include playing the Acoustic Guitar and Djembe.

I graduated from Mark Morris High School in 2007 and started a vocational training program in Audio Engineering at a local college. Two years later, armed with new skills and even more musical skill (such as it is), I graduated with an Associate's degree in Contemporary Musicianship and Audio Production.

I'm currently proud to be serving at my church as a bassist and audio tech.
