

Jamie Moore

BAND STORY

"

Having performed music with my Dad Quincy Follweiler for approximately 10 years now, I have played many places and met some wonderful people. It all started when Dad lost yet another back up singer because she thought he was mean! HAHA! If you knew him, you would laugh too!

I took that opportunity to let Dad know that I was ready to join the band and sing with him- but I was still so shy I had to have mom tell him! HAHA! I already knew all the music because I was usually present at all the rehearsals, so fitting in was a breeze and I've never looked back! Together, we've been through several band changes, starts, and restarts! Its been tons of fun and we've ministered to a lot of people. I've grown alot too! Now I'm not so shy and definitely not so young! 😊 I'm starting to venture out on my own just a bit as well. I like to sing on praise teams and in the children's ministries at my church. But singing with my Dad is still the BEST!

"

LATEST NEWS

Hey There!

Well it's been a while, but I'm still here! There hasn't been much new in the music world over here- well unless you count the New Kids concert I went to recently...and yeah. Many of you would contend that they don't count as musicians! ha! But I like them anyways, so there!

Leave a comment and let me know how you've been!

~Retro

Where have I been?

Seriously, where have I been?
There are so many new artists and new songs to be added to my radio station! I love to come on here and see new things! I'd better get to it!
There really isn't much new with me-Just being me! :)

STATS

Visits	Plays
1,282	628
Streams	Downloads
569	59

Featured Songs

- Teach me How To Fly Contemporary Christian
- 490 Christian Classic Rock