He is self taught and plays the piano by ear. He won various talent shows in grade school and was awarded the best vocal music student in his middle school for 8th grade graduation. music appeals to all audiences. Kevin commits his ministry and his music to the Lord recognizing that it's not about Him, but about turning our hearts and face toward heaven. May we all see our need for God and be drawn to Him in a personal and intimate relationship. Kevin is married to his wife Tracy of 12 years and has two children Abby and Michael. Kevin continues to lead worship at his home church in Evansville, Indiana. Kevin's desire to go out of the four walls of the church is becoming a reality. His music speaks to all ages and all denominations. But one thing Kevin is clear on- it's not about him, but it's about the One who called him.
